

Tenet Advisory & Investments Announces New Board Appointments

- Mr. Ian Silk appointed Non-Executive Chair
- The Hon. Jaala Pulford appointed a Non-Executive Director

Melbourne – 2 July 2025 – Tenet Advisory & Investments (Tenet A&I) today announced the appointment of Ian Silk as Non-Executive Chairman of the Board.

Inaugural Executive Chairman Luke Sayers will remain on the Tenet board as a director along with fellow founding partners Sammy Kumar and Peter Mastos and will continue to focus on the firm's key clients and investments.

Mr. Silk brings more than 30 years of experience in executive leadership and board roles. He served as inaugural Chief Executive of AustralianSuper from 2006 to 2021. During his tenure, AustralianSuper's membership more than doubled and members' assets grew tenfold. Under Mr Silk's leadership AustralianSuper was regarded as one of Australia's top performing funds and was also named the most trusted superannuation fund for 11 consecutive years.

Mr Silk has just stepped down as Chair of Crown Melbourne having overseen the transformation of the business following the Royal Commission, including Crown regaining its licence. He is also a Director of the Hawthorn Football Club and advises a range of organisations.

"It's a great honour to be taking on the role of Chair at Tenet. The company is made up of an incredibly talented team of partners and employees, and I look forward to contributing as Tenet enters a new chapter of expansion," Mr. Silk said.

Tenet A&I is also excited to announce that The Hon. Jaala Pulford has joined the Board as a Non-Executive Director, effective July 1.

Ms. Pulford was a member of the Victorian Parliament from 2006 to 2022, serving as Deputy Leader of the Government in the Legislative Council and becoming the state's first female Agriculture Minister. She currently chairs MTPConnect – Australia's life sciences innovation accelerator – as well as the Children's Cancer Foundation. She is also a Non-Executive Director at VetScript and a Vice-Chancellor's Fellow at the University of Melbourne.

Commenting on the appointments, Mr. Sayers said, "We are delighted to welcome Ian and Jaala to our Board. Ian's deep expertise in long-term value creation, strategic oversight, and governance makes him uniquely placed to lead our Board.

"Jaala is a highly respected leader whose extensive experience in public administration and governance will bring significant value to the Board. These appointments come at a pivotal time as Tenet continues to advance through its next phase of strategic growth."
