

Artist Robin White and her collaborator Ebonie Fifita populate imaginary interiors with objects and patterns that, in Robin's words, 'hold memories, identities and family histories' and tell stories of love and care.

This room is based partly on Robin's own home and studio in the town of Whakaoriori / Masterton in Aotearoa New Zealand.

We welcome you to 'make this house a home' by furnishing it with objects and decorating it with patterns that tell stories of your family.
