FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What are the prices for an event?

Rental fees are quoted upon request and are an integral part of supporting the operation of the Field Museum.

What time can my event start and end?

Events inside the museum may begin at 6:00 p.m. and must end no later than 2:00 a.m.

How can I hold a space for an event?

We offer a complimentary two-week hold for your event.

Will I be required to sign a contract and supply insurance?

All renting parties will be required to sign and comply with a standard facilities rental agreement to use Field Museum space.

May we serve alcohol at our event?

The Field Museum maintains a liquor license, so all wine, liquor, and beer must be purchased through the museum. All arrangements will be made through your account manager. View bar packages at www.fieldmuseum.org/venue-rentals.

Is a deposit required? Is my deposit refundable?

To confirm your event, a deposit is required, along with a signed contract. Deposits are nonrefundable.

What vendors are we allowed to use?

The Field Museum has a list of exclusive vendors listed in this brochure and online at www.fieldmuseum.org/venue-rentals.

Is security available for my event?

Basic security is included in all rental fees.
