Dr. Raffi - One of LA's Best Plastic Surgeons

Dr. Raffi Hovsepian is a triple board-certified aesthetic, plastic, and reconstructive surgeon internationally recognized for his creative artistry, precision, and mastery of his profession.

His journey to using cutting-edge aesthetic techniques has been remarkable, and he is widely regarded as one of the most innovative and skilled plastic surgeons in the field today.

His unrelenting passion for advancing the field of plastic surgery made him a respected leader in the industry and one of LA's best plastic surgeons. He continues to push the boundaries of what is possible in aesthetic medicine.

When asked about his beginnings, Dr. Hovsepian recalls that he was determined to leave no stone unturned to become one of the best plastic surgeons dedicated to giving his patients a new start in life. After earning his undergraduate degree from the University of California, Irvine, Dr. Hovsepian attended the Chicago Medical School, where he received his medical degree and two masters of science degrees. Aside from his formal medical education, he sought knowledge and experience from various sources, including earning international scholarships where he studied in Europe, Asia, and South America.

Dr. Hovspeian received extensive training in complex reconstructive and cosmetic surgical procedures after his residency at the University of Nevada School of Medicine, Las Vegas, and fellowships at the prestigious Aesthetic & Plastic Surgery Institute at the University of California, Irvine School of Medicine. His perseverance and tenacity have made him one of LA's best and most highly-skilled plastic surgeons. As a result, he established his private practice in Beverly Hills. He made a name for himself by using cutting-edge, minimally invasive techniques to produce natural-looking results that have helped hundreds of his patients look and feel their best.

To stand out from his competitors in this field, Dr. Hovspeian applies an individualistic approach to each patient. Since no two patients are the same, he adopts a completely bespoke approach, working closely with you to learn about your cosmetic goals and understand your lifestyle to create the results you want. His practice is outfitted with the most state-of-the-art equipment possible, enabling him and his team to provide an unmatched level of procedural excellence.

Dr. Hovspeian's extensive experience, knowledge, and skill in cosmetic surgery have made him one of the most renowned plastic surgeons in the world. His patients appreciate his emphasis on personalized care, attention to detail, and commitment to producing results that exceed their expectations. His passion has helped him remain resilient and focused on achieving his dreams.

The renowned surgeon also wants people to know that success doesn't come easily. It results from concerted effort and, most importantly, discovering your passion. He encourages people to find their passion, and they will enjoy what they do. "For me, it's helping people feel better about themselves and changing their lives for the better through aesthetic medicine/overall wellness," he says.

By continuing to push the boundaries of what is possible in plastic surgery and beyond, Dr. Hovspeian is helping redefine how people think about beauty, health, and wellness. His aesthetic techniques aim to help more people feel confident about themselves. In the coming years, he hopes to expand into anti-aging medicine and create beauty from the inside out. More importantly, Dr. Hovspeian believes in passing legacies to generations. He hopes to use his extensive background and experience to train the next generation in safe, effective, and best aesthetic medicine techniques.
