Paris, 31 May 2022

Île-de-France opening competition: new contract for Keolis in Seine-et-Marne

- On 25 May 2022, the board of Île-de-France Mobilités awarded Keolis the operation of the bus routes serving the Centre-West of Seine-et-Marne<sup>1</sup>, from 1 January 2023 for a period of six years.
- The contract covers the operation of 34 regular routes and four on-demand transport services, serving an area of over 140,000 inhabitants in 59 municipalities.

Using a fleet of more than 140 vehicles, this network of 34 lines will serve 59 municipalities including Ozoir-la-Ferrière, Brie-Comte-Robert, Tournan-en-Brie, Nangis and Gretz-Armainvilliers.

With services provided to 16 stations, the new contract will significantly improve intermodality between the bus lines and the RER and train network, from Brie-Comte-Robert and Ozoir-la-Ferrière to the stations of Combs-la-Ville (RER D), Marne-la-Vallée Chessy (RER A), Melun (RER D and line R), Tournan-en-Brie (RER E and line P) and Paris Gare de l'Est.

An evening bus service will be offered to passengers from 1 January next year, serving the municipalities of Ozoir-la-Ferrière, Tournan-en-Brie and Gretz-Armainvilliers.

Between now and the end of 2024, Keolis is committed to supporting Île-de-France Mobilités and the local council communities in the implementation of the transport network's energy transition, with the construction of a Bus Operations Centre for NGV-powered vehicles.

Keolis reinforces its presence in Seine-et-Marne

Keolis operates more than 30 regular bus routes in the department on behalf of Île-de-France Mobilités. These include the Express 100 line, the Goële transport-on-demand service and Filéo, the transport-on-demand service for the Paris-CDG airport hub.

Keolis also operates the PAM 77 transport service for people with reduced mobility, as well as some 15 special school routes on behalf of the Seine-et-Marne department.

In addition, Keolis manages school and extra-curricular transport for ten or so municipalities in the Goële sector.
