

PRESS RELEASE

Paris, September 2, 2022

Antonia Höög is appointed Keolis Group Sustainable Development and Engagement Director

- Antonia Höög will take up the post of Sustainable Development and Engagement Director at Keolis, working within the Group's Human Resources and Transformation Department.
- Her role will involve leading Keolis's new CSR and engagement team, uniting its sustainable development, differentiation, diversity and engagement activities within the same department. The team's ambition is to move the Group forward in terms of all the social, environmental and economic aspects of CSR.

Marie-Ange Debon, Chairwoman and Group CEO: "I want to congratulate Antonia for her progress as a Keolis team member. Keolis will be able to count on her expertise and her knowledge of the Group's priorities in its current programme of transformation to enshrine sustainable development in its long-term vision, strengthen our position as a major player in the regional energy transition and help to create an inclusive working environment open to diversity."

Antonia Höög joined Keolis in 2014. Since 2018, she has occupied the role of Strategy Director, overseeing the Group's strategy and the investment committee and reviewing major calls for bids.

Antonia worked for SNCF Consulting from 2010 to 2013, successfully completing many projects for the Group's entities and subsidiaries. She began her career as a management consultant, first at Kurt Salmon (2004–2006) and then at PMP Consulting (2006–2010).
