

PRESS RELEASE

Paris, September 2, 2022

Sophie Durand is appointed Keolis Group Communications Director

- Sophie Durand has been appointed to lead the Keolis Group Communications Department. She joins Keolis on 29 August 2022.
- Bringing 25 years of experience with Renault, Goodyear Dunlop Tyres, Randstad, and Suez, Sophie will be responsible for managing communication with staff and promoting the Keolis employer brand and savoir-faire in its relationships with all its stakeholders.

Marie-Ange Debon, Chairwoman and Group CEO: “I am delighted that Sophie will be joining the Keolis team. The Group will be able to count on her communications expertise and the experience she has gained with several leading groups in the industry and service sectors.”

Most recently, Sophie Durand occupied the role of communications director at Suez France, where she was a member of the board. From 2010 to 2019, at the Randstad France group, Sophie was responsible for external communications before being appointed group communications director, with a seat on the executive committee.

Sophie joined Goodyear Dunlop Tyres France in 2009 to manage social communications. Between 1996 and 2009, at the Renault group, she occupied successive roles as internal communications manager, international trade press project manager and head of corporate press.

A graduate of Audencia – Sciences Com’ in Nantes with an “environment and health” certificate from Mines ParisTech, Sophie is a member of the corporate relational capital working group at the Observatoire de l’Immatériel thinktank.
