

PRESS RELEASE

Paris, September 13, 2022

Laurent Calvalido appointed Managing Director of Keolis Dijon Mobilités

- Laurent Calvalido has been appointed Managing Director of Keolis Dijon Mobilités, operator of mobilities in Dijon métropole under the “Divia” brand.
- Laurent will be instrumental in consolidating the “Global Mobility” project, aimed at facilitating travel around the city while encouraging users to opt for virtuous forms of mobility. He will also support Dijon métropole in its innovative energy transition plan, based on a hydrogen ecosystem.
- He takes up his duties in October 2022, subject to the approval of the High Authority for Transparency in Public Life (HATVP). He takes over from Thomas Fontaine, who becomes Managing Director of Keolis Lyon.

Marie-Ange Debon, Chairwoman and Group CEO: “I am delighted that Laurent has joined Keolis and congratulate him on his appointment as Managing Director of Keolis Dijon Mobilités. I am counting on Laurent to use his knowledge of public transport policies and major projects to develop one of the most innovative networks in France in recent years. I would also like to thank Thomas Fontaine for the quality of the work carried out with his teams in the Dijon area. Recognised for his expertise, he has built a rapport of trust with Dijon métropole and expanded the reach of its Global Mobility project.”

Laurent Calvalido's career path

Laurent Calvalido is 38. He is a graduate of Ecole Polytechnique, the Corps des Ponts and Stanford University.
