Section 3. Calculation of port dues

1. The amount of port dues shall be based on the gross tonnage of the vessel (GT) in accordance with the valid International Tonnage Certificate issued according to the "International Convention on Tonnage Measurement of Ships" made in London on 23 June 1969.
2. In the case of oil tankers and gas carriers with a double bottom or separate ballast tanks, the port due shall be based on the gross tonnage of the vessel (GT) less the volume of the double bottom or separate ballast tanks, as defined in the recognized certificate or the international tonnage measurement certificate submitted to the Seaports Authority. The certificate shall contain in the "Comments" section a relevant entry in accordance with provisions of IMO Resolution A.747 (18), provided that the double bottom complies with Rule 13 F of Annex I to the Protocol of 1978 to the International Convention for the Prevention of Pollution from Ships, made in London on 02 November 1973, together with the Protocol of 1978, related to that Convention, made at London on 17 February 1978.
3. For vessels holding an international tonnage certificate that specifies their gross registered tonnage (GRT), 1 GRT = 1 GT shall be taken to determine the amount of the due.
4. In case it is not possible to determine the gross tonnage of a vessel (GT) or gross registered tonnage (GRT), the calculation of the port due shall be based on the tonnage of the vessel expressed in cubic meters, which is the product of the total length, maximum width and maximum draught as per summer waterline in fresh water, rounded up to the full cubic meter. In case the maximum draught is not specified according to the summer waterline in fresh water, the calculation shall be based on the 0.25 factor of the lateral height of the vessel. It is assumed that $1 \text{ m}^3 = 1 \text{ GT}$
5. Where the international tonnage certificate indicates different vessel volumes or the vessel ship has more international tonnage certificates, the calculation of relevant port dues shall be based on the largest volume specified in these documents.
6. Ships which cannot make full use of their tonnage, because of their permissible draft in the port defined by the valid port regulations of the Director of the Maritime Office in Szczecin, shall be pay a tonnage fee calculated according to the following formula:

(draught permitted in port)

X

(tonnage rate)

(maximum draught of the ship)

7. While making the same journey, ships calling to the port of Szczecin after leaving the port of Świnoujście or calling at the port of Świnoujście after leaving the port of Szczecin shall pay their tonnage due only once.
8. Ships which have paid their port dues in one of the following ports: Police, Trzebież, Stepnica, Nowe Warpno, or Wolin and immediately after leaving any of the ports mentioned above call at the seaport of Szczecin or the seaport of Świnoujście, and vice versa, shall pay a 50% of their tonnage due calculated on the basis of rates specified in Section 7, Section 10, or Section 11 of the Tariff.
9. Subject to the second sentence, ships in transit through the seaport of Szczecin or the seaport of Świnoujście shall pay 50% of their tonnage due calculated on the basis of the rates specified in Section 7, Section 10, or Section 11 of the Tariff. 11. The tonnage due shall be calculated either according to Section 3(6) or Section 3(10) of the Tariff. If both provisions mentioned in the preceding sentence are relevant, the rate which is more favourable to the ship operator can be applied.
12. The tonnage due shall be calculated either according to Section 3(10) or Section 7(10) of the Tariff. If both provisions mentioned in the preceding sentence are relevant, the rate which is more favourable to the ship operator can be applied.
13. Ships calling for commercial purposes shall be charged with the harbour fee for the use of the quay by that ship or its cargo. In the case of ships calling for commercial purposes which use the quay or quays for a period exceeding 7 days from the time the ship is berthed to the first quay until commercial operations commence, and if the vessel calling for commercial purposes does not leave the quay for 7 days after the end of commercial operations, the harbour fee, referred to in Sections 7 to 11 of the Tariff, shall be increased by the amount indicated in Section 11(g) of the Tariff for each day in excess of 7 days from the time the ship has berthed to the first quay or the end of commercial operations. In the case of ships calling exclusively for non-commercial purposes, the fee shall be calculated according to Section 11 of the Tariff.
14. The Seaports Authority shall have the right to verify the actual number of calls by regular of liner ships at any time. In case the actual number of calls by a regular or a liner ship differs from the agreed number, the Seaports Authority shall calculate an appropriate tonnage and quay dues according to the Tariff for the actual number of calls and shall issue a relevant clearing document.
15. Unless the Tariff expressly provides otherwise, the basis for determining the ship type shall be solely the classification contained in the "Lloyd's Register of Shipping", subject to the provision that break bulk ships carrying containers only shall be treated as container carriers for the purpose of the Tariff.
16. The fee for using the PCS-MT is payable upon the PCS-MT transfers to the terminal-based IT system information on the EU customs status for the goods in a given container assigned by the National Revenue Administration.

17. The fee for using the PCT-MT shall be borne by the operator of the terminal in the port of Szczecin or the port of Świnoujście who uses the IT system to which the PCS-MT transferred information from the National Revenue Administration system on the EU customs status of the goods in a given container. The PCS-MT fee is calculated based on aggregate settlement documents made by the Seaports Authority weekly (i.e. from Monday at 00:00 until Sunday at 24:00) or monthly (i.e. for calendar month: from first day of calendar month at 00:00 until last day of calendar month at 24:00).
