Where will 2024 take you?

by Christine Benbow, State Sales Manager – RACT Travel

As we head into spring, this is traditionally our Early-Bird season for Europe and North America bookings. It's certainly time to lock in the best deals and availability for touring, ocean, and river cruises. Whilst many choose to travel during the peak seasons of Easter through to October, we are seeing more tours and cruises open up availability in the low season, which equates to less crowds and sharper pricing.

So, if budget is a concern reach out to your RACT Travel advisor for some ideas around a northern hemisphere cruise or tour from November to March. You will be pleasantly surprised by the value they represent. It's not just the European Christmas markets that sparkle in Winter.

Closer to home we look forward to the return of the international ships from Alaska and Europe. This year we will see some exciting new ships venturing to our shores including the stunning Celebrity Edge and game changing Resilient lady from Virgin Voyages.

Plus Princess cruises to and from Hobart are selling fast, don't miss out. Popular music theme cruises return for 2024 including Bravo the Cruise of the Performing Arts & Rock the Boat both departing in October 2024 on Carnival Luminosa.

If you prefer the intimacy of a smaller ship its not too late to find a cabin on cruises to/from Hobart on Ponant or Coral Expeditions.

Our fly, tour and cruise packages remain popular with the last cabins

Ponant's Le Laperouse offers sailings to and from Hobart.

available on Singapore Christmas Lights including a cruise on Royal Caribbean. Japan Cherry Blossom on Holland America Line. New York to London on Norwegian Cruise Line and North Pacific Crossing on Princess. See page 2 for further details.
