

Based at the Colony in Wilmslow, Elite Design Studio is a High End Residential Interior Design company led by Cassie Heathcock & Gemma Merrick, two Interior Designers with over 15 years of combined experience in the Interior Design Industry.

Gemma and Cassie have collaborated their strong background and extensive experience in designing for high end luxury residential clients, and have been extremely fortunate to work on some outstanding award winning designs and projects, ranging in style and scope both Nationally and Internationally.

The Cheshire based luxury Design Studio provides a complete Design Service by effortlessly coordinating every element of the project to an exemplary standard.

They provide an all encompassing tailored Interior Design and Architecture service. This is completely bespoke and adapted to meet each client's brief, style and budget.

Together with producing exceptional design, they take great pride in sourcing beautiful furniture, accessories and lighting from leading brands globally.

Elite Design Studio provide a personal approach to each individual project ensuring they are professionally managed, consistently within budget and on time.

Their unique experience and commitment to superb quality has gained the praise of their clients as they provide a personal approach to each individual project, resulting in an exceptional level of detailed design and service.
