

WE'RE LOOKING FOR TAX EXPERT

The Serbia Innovates project is currently seeking a temporary tax expert to contribute to the efforts of our access to finance team.

ABOUT THE PROJECT

With the support of United States Agency for International Development (USAID), ICT Hub has launched the Serbia Innovates project. The aim of this project is to identify the most promising Serbian domains of innovation and facilitate the introduction and expansion of new economic models. The ultimate goal is to enhance the traditional economy, influence the creation of an innovation-driven economy, create new possibilities and opportunities for its strengthening, and stimulate development, competitiveness, and export potential.

ABOUT THE ROLE

Within this role, you're expected to:

- Draft transactional documentation for the financing of startup companies.
- Provide explanations on the Serbian tax framework for both domestic and foreign investors in startup companies and domestic VC funds.
- Draft a summary assessing the effectiveness of imposed tax incentives for investments in innovative companies and VC funds.
- Provide suggestions for improvements based on the evaluation of tax incentives.

REQUIREMENTS

This position is suitable for candidates who:

- Hold a Bachelor's degree in Accounting, Finance, Law, or a related field.
- Demonstrate a minimum of 5 years of hands-on experience in tax compliance and consulting.
- Understand both local and international tax regulations and laws.
- Are experienced in tax planning, tax due diligence, and managing the tax implications of international transactions.
- Display excellent communication, problem-solving, and analytical skills.
- Are able to effectively manage multiple projects concurrently and meet deadlines consistently.
- Possess fluency in English.

Candidates should submit their CV in English to the email address: slobodan.zebic@srbijainovira.rs.

The deadline for applications is November 17th, 2023.
