

What happens next?

- We will let you know when we have received your feedback or complaint.
- We will make sure your feedback or complaint goes to the right person.
- We will only tell people who need to know.
- If you make a complaint in person, we will talk with you right away.

We try to help as soon as possible but it can take up to 2 weeks to look into things. For more complicated complaints it can sometimes take up to 9 weeks to resolve. We will keep in contact with you throughout this time.

What if you are still not happy?

If you feel it is taking too long, or you are unhappy with our decision you can ask for your complaint to be looked at by someone else.

Children and Young People's Complaints and Feedback

If you think something is not right or needs to be changed, please tell us. We will listen and take action.

Help Make Key Assets Australia better!

We want to hear from you if you're not happy about:

- a decision that has been made
- the way staff or carers behave,
- or anything else that is important to you.

If you do not feel safe it is important to tell a trusted adult.

You might feel nervous, worried, or upset when making a complaint. We will be sensitive and listen to you. We will treat you respectfully and let you know what is happening.

YOUR FEEDBACK MATTERS TO US.
