

MSC Cruises March - November 2021 Deployment

Caribbean & The Bahamas

All three ships will call at Ocean Cay MSC Marine Reserve, MSC Cruises' private island destination, as a highlight of Caribbean itineraries.

- MSC Meraviglia – 7-night cruises from Miami departing every Saturday
- MSC Armonia – shorter itineraries 3- and 4-night cruises from Miami departing Mondays and Fridays
- MSC Divina – new homeport 3-, 4- and 7-night cruises from Port Canaveral departing on Sundays and Thursdays

The Mediterranean

Itineraries will visit eastern and western Mediterranean destinations including Italy, Greece, Spain, Croatia and even venture from the region to Israel, Morocco, Portugal and the Canary Islands.

Western Mediterranean

- MSC Seaside – 7-night cruises from Genoa departing on Saturdays
- MSC Seaview – 7-night cruises from Genoa departing on Saturdays
- MSC Fantasia – substituting for MSC Seashore 7-night cruises from Genoa departing on Sundays
- MSC Seashore – new ship 7-night cruises from Genoa departing on Sundays
- MSC Poesia – 9- to 12-night cruises from Genoa
- MSC Magnifica – 14-night cruise from Southampton, UK

Eastern Mediterranean

- MSC Lirica – 7-night cruises from Venice or Trieste
- MSC Musica, MSC Orchestra, MSC Opera and MSC Sinfonia – 7-night cruises from Venice departing on Saturdays and Sundays

Northern Europe

Itineraries will visit the majestic Norwegian fjords and the famous Baltic capitals along with a few select cruises from Southampton to destinations like the Canary Islands, Belgium, the Netherlands, Germany, Ireland, Iceland and more.

- MSC Virtuosa – new ship 7- to 14-night cruises from either Kiel, Germany or Copenhagen, Denmark
- MSC Splendida – 7-, 10, 11 and 14- night cruises from Kiel, Germany
- MSC Magnifica – 7-, 12- and 14- night cruises from Southampton, UK
- MSC Preziosa - 9- to 14-night cruises from Hamburg, Germany