

Danish Teacher at North Zealand International School

From august 2026 to august 2027

We are seeking a Danish teacher starting this August. The position is between 80% and 100% and involves teaching Danish as a Second Language for Years 1–7.

What we offer

At North Zealand International School, we are in an exciting phase of growth and development. Joining our team means becoming a part of a dynamic and collaborative teaching environment dedicated to enhancing both your professional growth and student learning.

Here's what you can expect:

- Professional Development: We provide training and opportunities for continuous professional development to support your teaching journey.
- Collaborative Community: We value collaboration as an essential part of our ethos. You'll work closely with a team of passionate educators who are committed to fostering a positive learning environment.
- International Experience: Immerse yourself in an international setting, where diversity is celebrated, and students come from various cultural backgrounds.

The successful candidate will have:

- Qualified teacher status
- Experience of teaching in a similar setting
- Sound subject knowledge and a sound understanding of the theory and practice of providing effectively for the individual needs of all students

A candidate applying for this position should be:

- Committed to maximizing the achievement of all students
- Able to actively engage students in their own learning and to support students in becoming independent and reflective learners.
- Knowledgeable on how assessment is used to support learning
- Able to utilize digital technology to support learning
- Able to plan collaboratively and supportively within the Secondary team
- Open to new challenges

About Us

North Zealand International School is a private independent international school with 400 learners from 60 different countries. North Zealand International School is part of NGG – Nordsjællands Grundskole and Gymnasium. We have learners from Early Years up to Year 11. Currently, we teach the International Early Years Curriculum (IEYC), International Primary Curriculum (IPC), International Middle Years Curriculum (IMYC), IGCSE and, from 2025, the IB Diploma Programme.

Our Shared Vision of 'NIS learners actively engage in shaping their own learning, continually aiming to be respectful, responsible, globally-minded lifelong learners' is lived and breathed throughout the school. We offer a dynamic, international learning and teaching environment where both international and Danish traditions are both highly valued. NIS is at the forefront of educational research with NIS being one of only handful of school in Europe to be ICA accredited.

Teachers who are committed to change, want to further their educational journey and above all, are dedicated to improving learning will love the positive school culture here at NIS.

We moved into our brand-new purpose-built school in the winter of 2025.

Designed specifically to support our vision and future ambitions, the new campus provides the ideal environment for learning, development, and community.
