

Symposium, Stockholm University, August 26–27, 2021

CRISIS, DYING, APOCALYPSE

Subjectivity, Progress and Ecology in the light of the Anthropocene

It is be possible to follow the symposium on Zoom (links below).

Thursday, August 26

Zoom: <https://stockholmuni.zoom.us/j/61521009438>

- 09.00 Welcome, audio set up, etc.
- 09.15–10.00 Jacob Lund, Aarhus University The End of Futurity as We Knew It
- 10.00–10.45 Marietta Radomska, Linköping University Mourning the more-than-human: From crisis imaginaries to queer/ing eco-arts
- 11.00–11.45 Alexander García Düttman, Udk Berlin Apocalypse and Disappointment
- 11.45–12.30 Erik van Ooijen, Mälardalen University Visions of Future Mutant Archeology
- Lunch
- 13.30–14.15 Carin Franzén, Stockholm University A Deathloop: Reading Decameron with Freud and Morton
- 14.15–15.00 Mårten Björk, Oxford University A World With Many Ends: Eschatology and Perspectivism
- 15.15–16.00 Vicky Angelaki, Mid-Sweden University Corroded Landscapes, Eroded Communities
- 16.00–16.45 Dave Boothroyd, Lincoln University Futural Dispatches on responsibility for the Earth, or, What on Earth is Responsibility?

Friday, August 27

Zoom: <https://stockholmuni.zoom.us/j/61203455573>

- 09.15–10.00 Jenny Jarlsdotter Wikström, Umeå University Ghost kids: Loss, mourning and the void in Aase Berg's death poetics
- 10.00–10.45 Anders E Johansson, Mid-Sweden University small revelations ... maybe not even with an apocalyptic tone
- 11.00–11.45 Jesper Olsson, Linköping University Stranger Thinga, Plant Life, and Posthuman Endgames: Reading Beckett with Others
- 11.45–12.30 Sven Anders Johansson, Mid-Sweden University The Pandemic, the Climate and The Death of Virgil

Venue: BIBLIOTEKET (Room 300), The Department of Culture and Aesthetics,
The Manne Siegbahn-house, Frescativägen 24 E, 1st floor

For more information, please contact: carin.franzen@littvet.su.se;
svenanders.johansson@miun.se; jesper.olsson@liu.se