

Dress code

The Club's Dress Code does not wish to be binding or overly prescriptive, however we do politely ask our Members and their guests dress for the occasion, and be respectful in their choice of smart, elegant attire. Please review the following guidelines to ensure that you and your guests are appropriately dressed for your visit to Annabel's.

Do's:

- Jeans may be worn, if in a solid colour.
- Linen suiting may be worn, but must be freshly pressed.
- A round neck t-shirt is permitted, if worn with a tailored jacket.
- Tailored shorts may be worn for ladies, however denim shorts or hotpants may not.
- Smart leather jackets are permitted, provided they are in good repair.
- Trainers and sneakers are permitted, provided they are in good repair. Trainers that appear to be worn for exercise are not suitable for wearing in the Club.

Don'ts:

- Shorts are not permitted for men.
- Ripped jeans are not permitted.
- Sportswear and gym wear are not acceptable, unless you are attending a pre-booked fitness event.
- Sports caps, baseball caps and flat caps are not permitted, however trilby style hats may be worn.
- Flip flops are not permitted.
- Excessive displays of skin are not permitted.

Our reception team reserve the right to turn away Members and their guests if they are deemed to be unsuitably dressed. Gentleman are required to wear a jacket/blazer at all times after 6pm, unless on the dancefloor. We understand that at the weekend the Club becomes a family friendly space, however we would request that all children and teenagers are attired appropriately in line with the dress code above.

Any Member or guest who, in theory, complies with our dress code but may not be sufficiently well-presented, could be refused entry to the Club. Management reserves the right to refuse admission to any party deemed to be unsuitably dressed.
