

Come Christians Now This Glorious Morn

Dave Therit

Mac Lynch

Christ came to save our dy - ing race, Dead in our No mor - tal soul in their own strength Could ev - er The en - mi - ty 'midst God and man We fear no sins and need - ing grace. God's wrath was due, His cross that great ex - panse From hell to heav'n, from more for it was slain! God's peace now reigns in jus - tice sure; The gulf was vast, but death to life, Ex - cept by Christ's own hearts of faith. We're just - i - fied! A

Come Christians Now
This Glorious Morn, p. 2 love en - dured. Come Christ - ians now this sac - ri - fice.. Come Christ - ians now this maz - ing grace! Come all the world this glo - rious morn, Come wor - ship Christ our ri - sen glo - rious morn,

glo - rious morn,

Lord! The Lord of Heav'n who came to save, Is ri - sen tri - um - phant from the grave!