

Washington
STATE FAIR[®]

PUYALLUP

The Washington State Fair is seeking individuals to work at the Farm at Sillyville. Successful candidates will demonstrate skills in enhancing a child's experience in a unique, hands-on learning environment that focuses on the role of farming and nutrition in their everyday lives. This is an excellent opportunity for individuals looking at adding to their resume or experiences for working with children in an educationally driven environment.

This position is a seasonal "fairtime" opportunity.

Job Title: Farm at Sillyville Docents

Terms: Part-time/Seasonal

Hours per week: up to 40 hours

Wage: $15.00 per hour

*Must be 18 years or older

Job Requirements:

- Provide excellent customer service through duties including greeting patrons, answering questions, redirecting traffic flow through exhibits, and monitor entrances and exits.
- Work with children of all ages, but primarily ages 3-9, and find teachable moments in the exhibit.
- Display a sense of ease while speaking with the public one on one.
- Candidates must be able to stand on feet for long periods while standing or walking through the exhibit. Some light lifting up to 30 lbs. is required.
- Be able to work in all weather conditions both inside and outside.
- Be flexible to a fast-paced environment with high energy and moderate level of noise.

Apply today to Peggy Watson, Educational Programs Coordinator at peggy@thefair.com.