

Fact Sheet

The program provides free training to:

Improve your English, oral and written communication skills

Improve your reading skills

Improve your mathematical skills

Improve your digital skills

Individuals

You can receive free training from service providers if you are:

Australian citizen or permanent resident

15+

aged 15 years and over

AND

have left secondary school education

OR

employed or recently unemployed (within the past nine months)

Employers

Support your business to grow:

Invest in your business and develop your employees foundation skills

Work with Service Providers to access staff training packages tailored to your needs

How to apply

There are training organisations all around Australia who can provide training through the Foundation Skills for your Future program.

For more information

www.dese.gov.au/FoundationSkills