SUSAN FENTON 'INSPIRATIONAL' AWARD NOMINATION FORM

This annual scholarship pays tribute to Susan Fenton, who was a member of the Box Hill Institute Group staff and Board and who sadly passed away in 2017.

In 2011, Susan joined Box Hill Institute as a teacher in the School of Foundation and Adult Learning. In July 2016, she became our staff-elected Board member. Susan was well-known for her generous community spirit. She dedicated 35 years of her life to volunteering with various community groups.

Nominees must be:

- a female student committed to your studies
- enrolled in a traditional trade apprenticeship or a Building Studies Architecture course
- able to inspire other female students to pursue a career in the trades
- an Australian citizen or holder of permanent resident status in Australia
