3.3 Goals

The investment objective is to achieve the appreciation of the investment shares of the sub-fund through an investment strategy focused on investments in renewable energy sources, mainly in Europe. The sub-fund will invest mainly, but not exclusively, in photovoltaic, wind, hydro and geothermal power plants and biogas plants and related assets and services. The sub-fund may also invest in other financial assets related to the sub-fund's strategy.

The income will be reinvested primarily with the aim of increasing the value of the investment shares, but may also be paid as dividends to the owners of the investment shares. The performance of the sub-fund's portfolio will not be compared against any comparative benchmark or market composite index. The Product may use repo transactions to reduce cost risk or to generate additional income for the Product. The investment shares of the sub-fund are not admitted to trading on a regulated market.

The sub-fund is denominated in euros, currency risk is not actively managed. The sub-fund will use a conservative level of debt. 4. WHAT RISKS AM I TAKING AND WHAT RETURN COULD I ACHIEVE?

The risk indicator assumes that you will hold the Product for 5 years. The actual risk may differ significantly if you cash in the Product at an early stage and you may get less money back.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that you will lose money due to market conditions or because we are unable to pay you. We have classified this product in class 6 out of 7, the second highest risk class. This rates the potential loss of future performance at a high level and it is very likely that our ability to pay you will be affected by adverse market conditions.

In practice, the risk associated with an investment varies significantly with different holding periods (investment length); if the investment horizon is not adhered to, the actual risk may be significantly higher and you may receive significantly less back if you terminate the investment early.

More information on early termination and the recommended holding period of the investment can be found below. Please note that the value of the investment may fall as well as rise over time and the return on the investment is not guaranteed. In extreme cases, the maximum loss may be the entire amount invested.

The product also involves material liquidity risk.

Other risks that the investor incurs when investing in this Product and which are not reflected in the SRI indicator are: asset development and construction risk, regulatory, negative development of financing for the construction and operation of valuable energy resources, technological, damage as a result of an unforeseen event, valuation of non-financial assets, sustainability-related, derivatives-related, leverage, operational, settlement, risks associated with property valuation, concentration risk, risk associated with project construction.

The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back, the risk associated with debt financing, the risk of exit/sale of the project.

What you get from this product depends on future market performance. Future market developments are uncertain and cannot be predicted with accuracy.

6. WHAT COSTS ARE ASSOCIATED WITH THE INVESTMENT?

The person selling or advising you on this product may charge you other costs. If so, that person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

6.1 Cost over time

The tables show the amounts that are paid out of your investment to cover various types of costs. These amounts depend on the amount of your investment, the length of time you hold the product and (where applicable) the performance of the product. The amounts shown in this table are examples based on a sample investment amount and different possible investment periods. We assumed that:

- in the first year you would get back the amount you invested (0% annual return); for the other holding periods we assumed the product performance according to a moderate scenario,
- EUR 10,000 is invested annually.

Scenarios	If you exit the investment after 1 year	If you sell after 5 years
Total costs	1,042 EUR	2,809 EUR
Impact on yield (RIY) per year	10.42%	5.62%

(*) This figure shows how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example, it shows that if you exit the investment within the recommended holding period, your expected average annual return will be 17.0% before costs and 11.3% after costs.

Performance fees and capital appreciation fees	1.16% of the value of your investment per year. The Fund collects a performance fee from the net appreciation of your investment if the product has had a positive performance. There are no capital appreciation fees for this product.	113 EUR

7. HOW LONG SHOULD I HOLD THE INVESTMENT? CAN I WITHDRAW MY MONEY EARLY?

Recommended holding period: 5 years

The length of the recommended horizon is related to the risk profile of the Product, where riskier assets are subject to higher market fluctuations in the short term and this may negatively affect the value of the investment. Adhering to the horizon significantly increases the likelihood that the investment will appreciate positively.

Investment shares are redeemed from the investor under normal conditions within six (6) months from the first valuation of the Sub-Fund following the receipt of the application under the Agreement, and no later than two (2) years from the receipt of the application. Investment shares are not redeemed for a period of five (5) years from the establishment of the Sub-Fund. Please note that if the investment horizon is not observed, the actual risk expressed by the summary risk indicator may be higher. Failure to observe the investment horizon may therefore affect the investment return expressed by the RIY indicator and the performance scenarios indicated (see information above).
