The return on invested funds is not guaranteed and depends on the prices of the underlying assets, which are influenced mainly by developments in the real estate market and the macroeconomic environment. In view of this risk profile, the recommended investment holding period is at least 10 years. Investment shares are issued and redeemed semi-annually at the current value determined in accordance with the Fund's statute. The investor may request the redemption of investment shares.

3. WHAT RISKS AM I TAKING AND WHAT RETURN COULD I ACHIEVE?

3.1 Risk indicator

The risk indicator assumes that you hold the Product for 10 years. The actual risk may differ significantly if you cash in the Product at an early stage and you may get back less money.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this Product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that you will lose money as a result of negative market movements or because we are unable to pay you. We have classified this Product in class 6 out of 7, the second highest risk class. This rates the potential loss of future performance at a high level and it is very likely that our ability to pay you will be affected by adverse market conditions.

In practice, the risk associated with an investment varies significantly with different holding periods (investment length); if the investment horizon is not adhered to, the actual risk may be significantly higher and you may receive significantly less back if you terminate the investment early.

More information on early termination and the recommended holding period of the investment can be found below. Please note that the value of the investment may fall as well as rise over time and the return on the investment is not guaranteed. In extreme cases, the maximum loss may be the entire amount invested.

Beware of currency risk. You will receive payments in different currencies, so the final return you receive depends on the exchange rate between the two currencies in question. This risk is not considered in the above indicator. The product also involves material liquidity risk.

There is no significant risk associated with investing in investment shares denominated in Czech crowns (CZK class) compared to investing in investment shares denominated in euros (EUR class).

Other risks that the investor incurs when investing in this Product and which are not reflected in the SRI indicator are: operational, settlement, risks associated with property valuation, concentration risk, credit, leverage risk and the risk associated with the possibility of default of the company in which the Product has a stake.

3.2 Performance scenarios

The figures shown include all costs of the Product itself, but may not include all costs you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back. What you get from this Product depends on future market performance. 4. WHAT HAPPENS IF WOOD & COMPANY INVESTIČNÍ FOND S PROMĚNNÝM ZÁKLADNÍM KAPITÁLEM, A.S. IS UNABLE TO MAKE A PAYOUT?

Cash and asset accounts are established and maintained on behalf of the Fund by the Depositary and are segregated from the assets of the Fund and the Depositary. Therefore, the potential insolvency of the Fund as the creator of the Product or the Depositary does not affect the value of the investment.

The return on investment in the Product, its parts or the return on investment is not guaranteed in any way. No guarantees are provided by third parties for the protection of investors.

5. WHAT COSTS ARE ASSOCIATED WITH THE INVESTMENT?

The person selling or advising you on this Product may charge you other costs. If so, that person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

5.1 Cost over time

The tables show the amounts that are paid from your investment to cover various types of costs. These amounts depend on the amount of your investment, the length of time you hold the Product [and (where applicable) the performance of the Product]. The amounts shown in this table are examples based on a sample investment amount and different possible investment periods. We assumed that:

- in the first year you would get back the amount you invested (0% annual return); for the other holding periods we assumed the Product's performance according to a moderate scenario,
- EUR 10,000 is invested annually.

Scenarios	If you exit the investment after 1 year	If you sell after 10 years
Total costs	785 EUR	4,983 EUR
Impact on yield (RIY) per year	7.85%	4.98%

(*) This figure shows how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example, it shows that if you exit the investment within the recommended holding period, your expected average annual return will be 10.7% before costs and 5.7% after costs.

This information includes the maximum distribution fee that the person selling you the product may charge, which is 3% of the amount invested. The actual amount of the distribution fee will be communicated to you by that person.

5.2 Cost structure

One-time costs upon entry or exit	If you terminate the investment after one year
Entry costs	3% of the amount you pay when entering the investment. The figure is based on the maximum entry fee, the actual amount is determined by the product distributor. 291 EUR

Additional costs under certain conditions
Performance fees and capital appreciation fees	0.59% of the value of your investment per year. The impact of the performance fee we collect from the net appreciation of your investment if the product has had a positive performance. 57 EUR

6. HOW LONG SHOULD I HOLD THE INVESTMENT? CAN I WITHDRAW MY MONEY EARLY?

Recommended holding period: 10 years

The length of the recommended horizon is related to the risk profile of the Product, where riskier assets are subject to higher market fluctuations in the short term and the value of the investment may be negatively affected. Adhering to the horizon significantly increases the likelihood that the investment will appreciate positively. Investment shares are redeemed from the investor no later than two (2) years from the receipt of the redemption request. Investment shares are not redeemed for a period of five (5) years from the inception of the Product. Please note that if the investment horizon is not adhered to, the actual risk expressed by the summary risk indicator may be higher. Failure to adhere to the investment horizon may therefore affect the investment return expressed by the RIY indicator and the performance scenarios indicated (see information above).
