HAMPDEN GURNEY GOVERNORS' FUND

VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS

The Governors' Fund is a vital element in ensuring that the School is a safe, well-equipped and pleasant environment for the children. This money is held and managed by the Governing Body and is used to make up short-falls in spending on maintaining and improving the school. As a Voluntary Aided Church School, the Governing Body is responsible for the school buildings and other capital works including the playgrounds and ICT infrastructure.
