

Short Narrative Writing

12th September 2017

Inconsistent
use of capital letters + appropriate punctuation

It all started on a frosty cold Christmas Eve two girls were happily building snowmans their names were Iris and Lisa. Iris had short blond hair and a firework dress with blue shoes. Lisa has a rainbow dress with black shoes. Then they saw a map covered in snow then they took off the snow it led to a ring that had wonderful powers that could grant three wishes.

adjective

adverb of time

co-ordinating adverb

modal verbs

consistent use of past tense.

They wanted to get the ring they only had £20 in their pocket then they got some stuff and took a boat from the Safe Harbour and set off in too shark infested water unfortunately all the sharks kept on attacking their boat then they put on their bags and jumped out off the boat and swam to shore.

2WT

- ① Spelling generally accurate.
- ② Use of subordinating + co-ordinating conjunctions.
- ③ More varied use of punctuation, vocabulary and subordinating + co-ordinating conjunctions.
- ④ Handwriting legible and correctly sized and formed.

12th September 2017

✓ segmenting

✓ Conditional

✓ common exception words.

✓ Capitalisation

A long, long time ago some explorers told Jack, John and Jo were on a mission to find the magic ring, but before they went on the hunt they had to get a map. That same night the explorer was lodged in the village. That morning Jack was walking in the streets to see if he could find a map shop, he did well sort of "oi" said a man "get out of here!" Jack desperately ran all

✓ Coordinating conjunctions

✓ 'ly' suffix

Jack had green eyes and ginger hair, John had blue eyes and blond hair last of all Jo had brown eyes and brown hair. Finally Jack found a map shop he bought a map of the ring. Then he ran so fast that he almost knocked some one over "what on earth was that man doing?" At long last Jack was home. When he was home the authors were nearly packed. Then they went to the safe harbour to get a boat. Tense

✓ Stamina

✓ Toned handwriting

They had been in the boat for about 40 minutes until they arrived at the shark infested water, John said "any minute now sharks would swim up and eat them", "that's why other explorers didn't make it".

✓ Expanded noun phrase

2W+

✓ Attempting contraction

Composition

Punctuation and Grammar

Transcription

2WA

✓ Creating narrative

Question.

0th

November 2018

LO: To write a newspaper report.

2WA

A Dramatic Visit!

✓ Adverbial:

Yesterday, Miss Smith spotted a greasy alien in her school, hampton green. Many people are asking the police! Why ~~but~~ they have no clue. Why a alien has landed.

✓ Coordinating conjunction.

✓ Past progressive.

✓ Contraction.

✓ When Miss Smith was walking up the stairs, coming out of 2 year one was a green, slimy alien. She was so scared that she nearly fainted. ~~which~~ scared her. Luckily, Miss Smith ran away so she didn't faint. Miss Smith said she thought it was the most scary, ugly creature she had ever seen in her life.

✓ Expanded noun phrases.

✓ Tense

All the children were ~~locked~~ locked in the classroom ~~with~~ with a teacher meanwhile police were trying to ~~take~~ look for the alien but every time they saw him he would vanish. More and more people came ~~every~~ every time he vanished and right at the end the police got him. After Miss Smith a young boy spotted him playing in the playground with toys. "I looked away the second I saw him" the boy mumbled.

✓ Capitalisation.

✓ Upper case

✓ Joined

Everybody was ~~about~~ absolutely terrified especially Mrs Chapman, the Rink hatted head teacher. Her mind was racing with problems that would happen to her glorious school. She said that it was the most dramatic visit in her whole entire life. A police ~~promised~~ promised promised her everything will be okay tomorrow and that made her much more calm.

Full stops.

✓ Chronology
✓ Creating Narrative

Friday 4 June

Lo: To write an information text.

2 GD

Tigers

Tigers are one of the biggest wild cats and they are endangered species, there are around 200 of them left in the wild. They can weigh over 350 Kgs!

✓ Different sentence forms.

What is prey?

✓ Capitalisation
✓ Full stops.

✓ Comma
for list

Prey is good for tigers and there many prey is wild pigs, wild cattle and several species of deer. Tigers can eat as much as 25 kgs at one time because of this after eating they do not need to eat again for a long time.

✓ Segmenting

How do tigers catch their prey?

Features of genre.

Tigers go low down to the grassy, smooth ground and creep up behind their prey very quietly without making a single sound. They pounce straight up in the air with their big sharp claws and long, sharp and pointy teeth and huge, juicy paws.

Where do tigers live?

Tigers live in territories and hunt alone. A lone tiger marks their territories by scratching a humungous green tree close to its den.

Snakes

Snakes are green, slithering creatures or poisons. You also have to beware of snakes because they are very dangerous!

Where do snakes live?

Over 50 species of snake live in the clear, cold sea but the flying snake lives in the green trees and glides from branch to branch. Expanded noun phrase

How many types of snakes are there?

There are about 2500 known species of snake in the world and around 20% of all known snakes are poisonous but 30000 people a year!

How do snakes sleep?

Snakes do sleep but they can't close their eyes, this is because they don't have eyelids.

They don't even have ears. Attempt at contraction

Conditional

How do snakes eat?

If a snake eats a egg they eat it whole and then digest it and spit out the shell.

Did you know?

Snakes when they bite they release poison or they can spit poison!

Snakes and Tigers

A Tiger Comes

A tiger is a animal and a snake is a animal.
Tigers are quick and snakes are quick

Different

A tiger is orange and a snake is green.
A tiger is big and a snake is small.

ELC

4.6.17