Baha'i Centre, 46 Bloomsbury Street, W.C.1.

No.5.

February, 1938.

Dear Friends,

The Cause of God is marching triumphantly on the American Continent. News from India speaks of fresh victories. Here in London, in the metropolis of the British Empire, we are still toiling slowly, very slowly, towards the goal set before us. Greater courage and greater sacrifice is demanded by the Guardian. Let us hearken to the ringing voice of Baha'u'llah: "O ye beloved of God! Repose not yourselves on your couches, nay bestir yourselves as soon as you recognise your Lord, the Creator, and hear of the things which have befallen Him, and hasten to his assistance".

Teaching Conference has been arranged to meet on Friday, February 18th, at 7.30 p.m. at the Centre. The report of the National Teaching Conference held in Manchester last December will be discussed. Please send suggestions to the Secretary. We must bring and pool all of our resources. Can we generate a power from this conference which will go all round London?

Extra Books.

It is thought probable that some of the friends may have extra copies of some of the Baha'i books. It would be greatly appreciated by the Spiritual Assembly if they would bring these to the Centre, if they do not need them, so that they can be given away to enquirers.

Study Classes.

At the Centre on Fridays, February 11th and 25th, at 8 p.m.
