Bahá'i Centre, 46 Bloomsbury Street, W.C.1.

No.9.

June 1938.

"Teach ye the Cause of God, O people of Bahá, for God hath prescribed unto every one the duty of proclaiming His Message, and regardeth it as the most meritorious of all deeds."

"In this Day, we can neither approve the conduct of the fearful that seeketh to dissemble his faith, nor sanction the behaviour of the avowed believer that clamourously asserteth his allegiance to this Cause. Both should observe the dictates of wisdom, and strive diligently to serve the best interests of the Faith." (Bahá'u'lláh)

Visitors: Dr. McCormick of Chicago paid us a visit in May on his way home from Iran.

Mr. A. Samimi of Teheran, Iran, who had visited the Guardian, and attended the American Baha'i Convention at Wilmette, was in London in the latter part of May. He spoke at the Centre on Sunday, May 29th.

It was a great joy to meet these friends.

Treasurer's Report. There is no deficit at the end of May and we can just pay our way, but for the furtherance of the Teaching Campaign which has just been inaugurated, an increase in funds is absolutely necessary.
