Dear Friends,

The support given to the new series of Sunday meetings has been really splendid, and whereas in the summer months the visitors out-numbered the believers present, this condition has now been reversed, as a large proportion of believers turned up and helped to make these meetings a real success, particularly the Question and Answer meeting. Those of us who attended the latter, found it both instructive and entertaining, and will certainly look forward to the next one. Those who missed the occasion will get another opportunity of this kind on October 22nd.

Our next great event will be the meeting at Victory House, which is a co-ordinated effort on the part of several societies. It is certain that the other organizing bodies will have good support from their members, and we can both TEACH and LEARN through personal contact with this audience of different groups, (all striving towards World Unity), especially as there will be no speaker on the Baha'i Faith.

Let us help wholeheartedly to promote that feeling of unity and friendliness between these various groups!

The London Spiritual Assembly send you their loving greetings.

GRAMOPHONE We have found that certain types of programme - such as ----- devotional meetings - are greatly improved by musical items, and therefore, a gramophone would unquestionably prove acceptable. If any believer feels moved to lend one, it would be greatly appreciated, and treated with due respect.

EVENING FEASTS. In spite of our bright hopes, the streets have not ----- proved to be much brighter with the dim-out, and so the usual query about evening feasts arises. We should like to know the general opinion about the desirability of transferring celebrations of Nineteen Day Feasts to the nearest Saturday afternoon, instead of holding them on the correct date. No change will be made till November, so please express your views before then.

DATES TO REMEMBER (or mark in your diary) for this month.

Study classes are still held on Thursday evenings at 7.0 p.m. for those who wish to have them.

"Consider, moreover, how frequently doth man become forgetful of his own self, whilst God remaineth, through His all-encompassing knowledge, aware of His creature, and continueth to shed upon him the manifest radiance of His glory. It is evident, therefore, that, in such circumstances, He is closer to him than his own self.
He will, indeed, so remain for ever, for, whereas the one true God knoweth all things, perceiveth all things, and comprehendeth all things, mortal man is prone to err, and is ignorant of the mysteries that lie enfolded within him...."
