NAW-RUZ This feast will again be one of the occasions when we are glad to welcome our many friends, and hope to give them an evening that is both entertaining and enlightening, together with a feast of something more than the newspaper-reported "meat paste sandwiches".

There will be a presentation of a new drama entitled "The Eternal Covenant", written and produced by Hasan Balyuzi. Invitation cards will be sent out, (it is hoped that you will take some at the next Feast, to give to your friends), and there may be Press representatives coming, again. As before, we know that the community will produce miracles in the way of contributions to the feast, and Walter Wilkins will be glad to have an early indication of what you would like to bring.

ELECTION LISTS. Please inform the secretaries as early as possible, if you are unable to serve on the Assembly in the event of election. Pnd. .... Png EXCERFT FROM LETTER FROM THE N.S.A ... ".. the N.S.A. has retained the publicity officer for a further year's work. One of his plans is that we should have reprints made of suitable articles from New World Order explaining the Faith, these to be sent to prominent people as publicity literature. This means compiling a list of suitable people and we should be grateful for suggestions from your assembly of the names and addresses of people in prominent positions, such as members of parliament, etc., who you think might be responsive to information about the Faith.

................... NEWS FLASHES.

========== Walter Wilkins has been released from C.D. duties. and has returned to his own line of work. We are glad that he will not have to "go to ground" for periods of night duty.

David Hofman has returned from an Ensa tour on the Continent, and invites the believers to come to the Centre on Sunday, March 4th, when he will tell them of some of his experiences, and the contacts he met. This will be at 5.30. London Community agreed to correspond with the Community at Anchorage, Alaska. A letter is being sent, and some day the answer will be read out at a 19-day Feast. Mrs. Saunders held a fireside meeting at Purley; particulars of this meeting and others being held at South Kensington and Ealing, are obtainable on application. Homer Reynolds, another American believer ser-

Early in the morning of Saturday, 24th February 1945, Brian Stevenson passed to the Abha Kingdom, in his sleep.

In accordance with his wish, the flowers which are being sent on behalf of the London Community, will go to cheer the other patients in his hospital ward. Baha'i prayers will be read at the interment, at the Borough of Kensington Cemetery, Gunnersbury Avenue, W.3., on Saturday, 3rd March, at noon.
