

THE LONDON BAHAI BULLETIN
Baha'i Centre, 1 Victoria Street, London, S.W.1

No. 93.

October 1945.

.....
"Say: O men! This is a matchless Day. Matchless must, likewise, be the tongue that celebrateth the praise of the Desire of all nations, and matchless the deed that aspireth to be acceptable in His sight." (Baha'u'llah).
.....

Dear Friends,

The meeting held on September 10th was indeed very inspiring. It was to commemorate the Master's talk at the City Temple, which was His first public address before a western audience; and those of us who were at the meeting felt His presence amidst us. The memory of this meeting is something to treasure.

We have received the news that Siyyid Mustafa Rumi, the valiant servant of Baha'u'llah, who worked many, many long years for the Cause in Burma, was martyred in that country during the Japanese occupation. We don't know the exact circumstances of his death, which was at the hands of a Burmese. The Guardian has designated him as a "Hand of the Cause". We have all heard of the Baha'i village in the heart of the Burmese jungle. Siyyid Mustafa was the man who took the message there. A memorial meeting will be held in his honour at the Centre, on Sunday, October 28th at 5.30 p.m., that is prior to the usual Sunday meeting.

It is a great pleasure to report that Vivian Isenthal's Fireside meetings restarted in September after a short summer break, are flourishing. The attendance is excellent and people want to come. That is how all Baha'i meetings should be. And the more Fireside meetings we have, the better.

Mrs. Hyett and Robert Cheek are in charge of catering for the Feast of the Birth of the Bab. Please let them know what you propose to bring.

The Sunday meetings ~~xx~~ in Hyde Park are going on very well. They will be held throughout October. Time: 1½ a.m.