

RESOLUTIONS AT CONVENTION, RIDVAN 103

(By an oversight these resolutions were omitted from the printed Journal and have therefore been added as a supplement.)

Recommended to incoming N.S.A. to appoint a committee with full powers in charge of finding suitable premises for a new Centre.
(Adopted)

That the N.S.A. meets only once in London and the rest of the time in different parts of the country where we have groups and assemblies. (To bring the N.S.A. more into contact with the believers and generate that spiritual power in different parts of the country.
(Deferred until a subsequent meeting)

Recommended that in future the previous year's figures should also be given on the income and expenditure account for comparison.
(Adopted. The auditors have been consulted and agree this can be done.)

That a national committee for dramatic presentations be appointed, to collect scripts for use by assemblies and groups. (Held over for discussion with other committees not yet appointed.)

Recommend to incoming N.S.A. to examine ways of making the Journal more interesting reading. (Referred to the Journal Committee).

That this Convention pledges itself that by next Convention 5 of the goal towns will have functioning assemblies and not more than 2 years will be taken to complete the nine. (Adopted)

That in future at big Bahá'í gatherings each person wears a slip with his name and home town, also that at Convention delegates should wear a distinguishing sign. (Adopted and passed to the Summer School Management Committee for their attention.)

Recommend to the N.S.A. to investigate fully the possibilities of using a caravan for mobile teaching. (Referred to the National Teaching Committee to investigate and report to the N.S.A.)

That the believers be kept in touch with what the N.S.A. is doing through the Journal. (Referred to the Journal Committee.)

That we seek the Guardian's guidance on teaching points, as to changes in goal towns and as to what help should be given to other towns and whether any further development should be undertaken until this is completed. (Adopted).
