MASHÍYYAT, 'ILM 111

No.195

October 1954

"The movement itself from place to place, when undertaken for the sake of God, hath always exerted, and can now exert, its influence in the world. In the Books of old the station of them that have voyaged far and near in order to guide the servants of God hath been set forth and written down."

(Bahá'u'lláh)
