

"The source of courage and power is the promotion of the Word of God, and steadfastness in His Love."

Beloved Friends,

We begin a new administrative year. Last year's report showed the magnitude of the work before us. We shall soon embark upon an intensive teaching effort, as recommended to all the local Communities by the National Teaching Committee and the Convention. Your Assembly will soon present to you its plans. In the meantime, this Bulletin will bring you announcements of meetings for May. Let us get ready to serve the Cause as never before - all of us - every one of us.

With loving greetings,

In His Fellowship,

The London Spiritual Assembly.
