No.143   Bahá, Jalál 107   April 1950

"I beseech Thee, O Thou Who art the Lord of the worlds, and the Beloved of such as have recognized Thee, and the Desire of all that are in heaven and on earth, by Thy Name through which the cry of every suppliant hath ascended into the heaven of Thy transcendent holiness, through which every seeker hath soared to the sublimities of Thy unity and grandeur, through which the imperfect have been perfected, and the abased exalted, and the tongue of every stammerer unloosed, and the sick made whole, and whatever was unworthy of Thy highness, and beseem-ed not Thy greatness and Thy sovereignty, made acceptable unto Thee - I beseech Thee to aid us by Thine invisible hosts and by a company of the angels of Thy Cause.   Do Thou, then, accept the works we have performed for love of Thee, and for the sake of Thy pleasure.   Cast us not away, O my God, from the door of Thy mercy, and break not our hopes in the wonders of Thy grace and favours."

                                        (Bahá'u'lláh)
