

LONDON BAHÁ'Í BULLETIN

No.147

ASMA', 'IZZAT, MASHIYYAT 107

September 1950

"Blessed is he that hath set himself towards Thee, and hastened to attain the Day-Spring of the lights of Thy face. Blessed is he who with all his affections hath turned to the Dawning Place of Thy Revelation and the Fountain-Head of Thine inspiration. Blessed is he that hath expended in Thy path what Thou didst bestow upon him through Thy bounty and favour."

(Bahá'u'lláh)

THIS IS VERY URGENT

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11th - 7 p.m.

Kenilworth Hotel, Great Russell Street, W.C.1.
(Tottenham Court Road Tube Station)

TO MEET THE NATIONAL TREASURER
AND THE FINANCE SUB-COMMITTEE of the NATIONAL SPIRITUAL ASSEMBLY

The National Treasurer is visiting every local Bahá'í Community in the British Isles. These meetings are not held just to appeal for funds. Before long the National Community will embark upon the Two-Year Plan. This enterprise, which the Guardian has called "Epoch-Making" must have a firm basis. Therefore these meetings are arranged so that the National Treasurer could explain the budgets drawn up by the National Assembly, and the friends could have an opportunity to express their views and feelings.

THIS IS A VERY IMPORTANT CONSULTATION MEETING

Nineteen-Day Feasts

Our Community

With greatest joy we extend a loving welcome to Miss Ira Smace and Miss Brigitte Hasselblatt as newly-declared believers.

Miss Renate Torop, another of our pioneers, has now returned from Edinburgh. We are proud of her pioneering work in the Six-Year Plan.

Our Visitors

We have been very happy to meet Mr. and Mrs. Haghshenas of Abadan, Persia, and Miss Marion Little of U.S.A., pioneer in Europe, whom we have had the privilege of meeting in previous years. Marion Little has recently undergone an operation in Middlesex Hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery and send her our loving greetings. We are looking forward to another visit from Mr. and Mrs. Haghshenas in the course of this month.

TUESDAY MEETINGS

- 7.30 p.m. - at 129 Ebury Street, S.W.1.

(These meetings are held by the kind invitation of Mrs. Slade in her home.)

Regional Week-end School at Brighton - Friday evening, October 6th to Sunday, October 8th.

We will all individually receive full particulars from the Regional Committee. This is an advance notice. Hotel charges will be 25/- inclusive for the week-end.

Northampton

We have received from the Northampton Spiritual Assembly the following letter:

To the Baha'i Communities of Birmingham, Bournemouth, Brighton, London, Norwich, Nottingham, Oxford.

Dear Baha'i Friends,

The Northampton Assembly extends to you a warm invitation to attend the public meeting on Thursday, September 28th, with which we are commencing our autumn teaching programme.

Richard St. Barbe Baker and Hasan Balyuzi will speak on "The Charter for the New Earth" at 7.30 p.m. in the Carnegie Hall, Abington Street, Northampton, and all those who can come along and support this meeting are assured of a very warm welcome.

With loving Baha'i greetings,

Faithfully in His Service, Betty Reed (Secretary)

Summer School

A large number of the London friends attended the Summer School. Altogether there were 170 visitors of many nationalities. It was indeed a very happy and exhilarating occasion, as well as instructive.
