KAMÁL, ASMÁ' 112

August 1955

"The blessed Person of the Promised One is interpreted in the Holy Book as the Lord of Hosts - the heavenly armies. By heavenly armies those souls are intended who are entirely freed from the human world, transformed into celestial spirits and have become divine angels. Such souls are the rays of the Sun of Reality who will illumine all the continents."

'Abdu'l-Bahá said: (Paris Talks P. 167-8)

"You must endeavour always to live and act in direct obedience to the teachings and laws of Bahá'u'lláh, so that every individual may see in all the acts of your life that in word and deed you are followers of the Blessed Perfection.

"Exert yourselves so that this glorious teaching may encircle the globe, and that Spirituality may be infused into the hearts of men.

"The Breath of the Holy Spirit shall confirm you.....

"Now I say unto you, bear this on your hearts and in your minds. Verily your light shall illumine the whole world, your spirituality shall affect the heart of things. You shall in truth become the lighted torches of the globe. Fear not, neither be dismayed, for your light shall penetrate the densest darkness. This is the Promise of God which I give unto you. Rise and serve the power of God."
