No.205

ASMA', 'IZZAT 112

September 1955

"And were I to arise to serve one of Thy servants, and to wait at his door so long as Thine own Kingdom endureth and Thine omnipotence will last, as a sign of My acknowledgment of this tie that bindeth him to Thy Name, the Creator, I would likewise - and to this Thy glory beareth Me witness - have to confess My complete failure to do him adequate service, and My deprivation of what can truly befit his station."

(Bahá'u'lláh)

Material for Study and Meditation

Do we really value and appreciate the efforts of every single believer in our Community, even though with some, they may be efforts of intention, or efforts of the future, rather than actual effective performance so far?

Do we know their personal interests, their tastes, their religious up-bringing?

Do we always think and speak of other believers in the most favourable way, never relating stories that we would not like said of ourselves?

Our Community

Miss Patricia Holland and Mr. Ian Sinclair were married on August 17th at the Centre. We wish them every happiness. They will be living in Leicester. Patricia offered to pioneer there some months ago.

We have been most privileged and happy to meet: Dr. and Mrs. Golestaneh (Libya), Mme. Lundström (Sweden), Mrs. Falahi, Professor Hakim, Mr. Obbadi, and Mr. and Mrs. Vahid Tehrani (Iran).

The Treasurer Reports - that a much greater effort is required to meet our commitments. Donations can be sent to The Centre or to his home: 67 Grasmere Avenue, Merton Park, S.W.19.

Donations of white cups and saucers for use at The Centre, will be greatly appreciated.
