RAHMAT, KALIMÁT 115

July 1958

"Whatsoever instilleth assurance into the hearts of men, whatsoever exalteth their station or promoteth their contentment is acceptable in the sight of God. How lofty is the station which man, if he but chooseth to fulfil his high destiny can attain! To what depths of degradation he can sink, depths which the meanest of creatures have never reached! Seize, O friends, the chance which this Day offereth you, and deprive not yourselves of the liberal effusions of His grace. I beseech God that He may graciously enable every one of you to adorn himself, in this blessed Day, with the ornament of pure and holy deeds. He, verily, doeth whatsoever He willeth."

(Bahá'u'lláh)
