PUBLIC MEETINGS

Up to now the cards announcing the London public meetings carried limited information, which did not give any detail about the Bahá'í Faith. As owing to limited funds, we are not in a position to distribute free Bahá'í literature, the new card appearing for the first time in October has been prepared. It carries "some principles, beliefs and practices" about the Faith on one side and on the other, the details of public meetings. It is felt that the new card would serve as a good teaching medium.

The new card, being more elaborate and printed with a wealth of information about the Faith, naturally costs more, so kindly ensure that no card is wasted. Please keep on giving the names and addresses of your non-Bahá'í friends to London Teaching Committee so that they can be included in our mailing list.

We have regular public meetings in three regions of London now. Please support them whenever you can and take along your friends.

NEW DECLARATIONS

Das Pillay's declaration was accepted by the Assembly. We welcome him to our community and wish him long devoted service to the Cause, he has so willingly and joyfully embraced.

It is always a great pleasure to report the joint declarations of a husband and his wife. We are so glad to have Andrey Earlston Cameron and Albert John Cameron amongst us. May they serve our Beloved Faith sincerely and continuously under His guidance, and help the London Community with their valuable services.

Welcome and greetings are also extended to Albert John Damsell. He heard about the Faith at the time of the Bahá'í World Congress, being a member of the staff at The Royal Albert Hall. At present, he is ill in hospital. Our prayers for his speedy recovery and joining us in all Bahá'í activities are sincerely offered to Bahá'u'lláh.

One more declaration, from Rosemary Yvonne Lynch. Our best wishes and heartfelt welcome to you, too, Rosemary.

We are also very happy to have Colin Wade, as a member of the London Bahá'í Community.
