Bahá'í months : Sultan, Mulk

February, 1964

"This is the Day in which God's most excellent favours have been poured out upon men, the Day in which His most mighty grace hath been infused into all created things."
Bahá'u'lláh

19 DAY FEAST

Friday, 7th February, at 8 p.m. Hosts: Helen Brace and Rameshani brothers.

ATTENDANCE AT 19 DAY FEASTS

AND BAHÁ'Í HOLY DAYS

As all the friends are aware, the meetings on these occasions commence with devotional programmes which require undisturbed concentration, and meditation. This is not possible if during the devotionals, late-comers enter the room. It is L.S.A.'s most sincere request to all the Bahá'í friends that they are present by the time announced for the meeting, and if they are unavoidably delayed to ensure that no disturbance of any kind is caused.

INTERCALARY DAYS

February 26th till March 1st (inclusive)

During these days, it is enjoined on the Bahá'ís to be particularly hospitable, charitable, and offer presents to friends and relatives. Most of all, these days are the days of preparation for the observance of that sacred obligation, the Fast, which commences on March 2nd and ends on March 20th.

DECLARATION

We are very happy to announce the declaration as a Bahá'í made by Bryan Murray, which was accepted at an emergency meeting of the office-bearers, immediately after the World Religion Day Meeting.

WORLD RELIGION DAY

It is with greatest satisfaction and humble thankfulness to Bahá'u'lláh, we record the successful celebration of the day on January 18th at Kensington Central Library. The hall, which can hold about 250 was packed to capacity. . . the performance by the Bahá'ís on the stage was faultless . . . the readings were so spirit-stirring and the entire atmosphere in the hall so tense with spiritual exhilaration. It was an occasion which will not be forgotten by the Bahá'ís and many non-Bahá'ís who were present.

It can be said with gratification that the success of the occasion was entirely due to the overwhelming support of the entire community, the efficient working of our local administrative bodies and the spirit of service to our Beloved Cause that fills our hearts.

We are thankful to the undermentioned friends for their participation and performance:

Latifa Anvar, Earl Cameron, Kit Forest, Edith Johnson, Ronald Lachmaya, Betty Leedham, Barry Millar, Ian Millar, Jyoti Munsiff, Meherangiz Munsiff, Judith Norell, Freda Nazar, Marion Shaker, Paul Soares, Ronald Stee, Charles Webb and Bruce Wightman.

We are particularly grateful to Ernie Lowe and Leonard Heath, who gave their precious time and valuable help in making the show, though they are not Bahá'ís.

The burden of sustaining the interest, moulding individual talents, and making any performance complete, always rests with the producer. This vital rôle was charmingly, pains-takingly and devotedly played by our dear friends Valerie and John Morley. To this devoted couple we are happy to say, "Thank you so much. Bahá'u'lláh certainly crowned your efforts and enthusiasm with success."

PRAYER & DEVOTIONAL MEETINGS

The Assembly has agreed in principle to organize regular weekly meetings at the Centre. Those who can help in any way may offer their services to any member of the L.S.A. for final consideration.

TREE PLANTING CEREMONY

Bahá'í friends living in the Ealing area have obtained the sanction of the Ealing Borough Council to plant a tree, to commemorate the Bahá'í World Congress Year. On the occasion of the actual ceremony, we should have as large a gathering of Bahá'ís and friends as possible. The date is likely to be February 29th. Please ascertain the date, time and place from Vivian Isenthal (PER 1326) and support the occasion with your friends.

LONDON BAHÁ'Í FUND : . . . needs your urgent and generous support. Please send your contributions to the Treasurer, Eruch Munsiff, 28 Inner Park Road, S.W.19.

CAMBRIDGE OFFER

Our dear friend, Dorothy Smith, has now moved to Cambridge. She has offered overnight stay at Cambridge in her house for London friends visiting that town. Dorothy can be contacted at 17, Owlstone Road, Cambridge.

DEATH

We are grieved to report that Mrs. Navidi passed away to the A'ba Kingdom, on January 10th at King's College Hospital. She was buried near the Guardian's resting place on 14th January.
