RE(F)USE

“One man’s trash is another man’s treasure.” Carmina Campus was born, in 2006, from the vision and creativity of Ilaria Venturini Fendi who developed RE(f)USE with the aim of giving new life to materials that would otherwise end up in landfills. The Rome Cavalieri now offers a creative workshop experience that takes place in the heart of Rome, and includes a tour of unique pieces of design and a detailed explanation of how the reuse of materials, combined with high quality craftsmanship, gives life to “sustainable creativity”. Guests can then choose materials and colors that the artisans of Carmina Campus will use to create an elegant pouch that will be sent directly to their home. A unique opportunity to see the world and its conservation from a different perspective and more in line with our times.

ESPRESSO YOURSELF

Discover the magic and tradition of authentic Italian coffee at the historic Roman roastery, Caffè Sant'Eustachio, serving coffee since the 1800s just around the corner from the Pantheon. Today, the recently opened Emporio Sant'Eustachio offers a trendy and chic meeting place in the heart of the city where you can learn about the history of coffee with its many anecdotes that will transport you over the centuries, the locations, the cultivations, the pairings and the secrets of this typical Italian ritual that has been exported the world over, so much so that coffee or “caffè” is the third most consumed beverage in the world. A lesson in culture and gastronomy that ends enjoying one of these renowned and delicious shots of “caffè” with its distinct aroma, perfect at any time from the moment you wake up, to after lunch or a break during the day.

TIRAMI-SÙ

At the Emporio Sant'Eustachio, an innovative and elegant concept food store in the heart of Rome, a few steps from the Pantheon, you can discover the history and preparation of the most beloved Italian dessert: Tiramisù. Born in the Veneto region, it became popular all over the world in the 1980s, so much so that it is considered a classic of Italian cuisine. There are four main ingredients: coffee, ladyfingers, mascarpone cream and cocoa powder. Under the guidance of an expert Pastry Chef, in the kitchens of the Emporio, you will prepare each ingredient with your own hands, starting with the coffee that will be used to dip the ladyfingers and to balance the sweetness of the mascarpone cream, spread over each layer. And to finish with a flourish, a sprinkling of cocoa. Let yourself be enveloped by the scent of coffee and the creaminess of your dessert in the company of those you love, in the heart of the Eternal City.

EXPLORING CIOCIARIA

Ciociaria: a charming but not-so-known land of history, traditions and flavors. With an art historian, you will explore the cathedral in the city of Anagni, known also as the “Sistine Chapel of the Middle Ages” and built between 1072 and 1104. The crypt was built by the bishop Pietro da Salerno and is dedicated to Saint Magnus, martyr and patron saint of the city. The interior of the crypt is embellished with a precious Cosmatesque floor and evocative frescoes depicting biblical scenes dating from 1231 to 1255, over an area of over 540 sqmt. Once there, you cannot miss the Castle of Fumone, in the province of Frosinone, with ancient and obscure origins; since early times it has been an important lookout post and an ancient communication post. The Castle is famous for various mysteries occurrences that happened in the past and are still happening to this day.
