INSPIRING THE ART OF HOSTING

"It's service from the heart. You want to connect. We have a credo which we live by. It's about the art of hosting so, for starters, how can we listen to our customers to make exceptional experiences? Very often you will remember years down the road, and you will remember a specific experience not necessarily a name or anything. But if you create those experiences, those customers come back." ### In & Around

Live Milan with the eyes of a local, discover what others don't know

- Visit the Sinigaglia Market, one of Milan's oldest and biggest flea markets that has been taking place since the 1800s! A paradise for those who loves antiques!
- Take a look at San Bernardino alle Ossa, a peculiar church known as "the Bone Church" for its strange human skull decorative pieces, rather creepy but very interesting!
- Take a walt at the Orto Botanico di Brera, the perfect place to chill in the centre of Milan, away from the noise and traffic, a tiny corner of paradise.
- Try the typical cruncy Milanese cutlet and enjoy a fresh aperol spritz!
