A NEW BRONX YOUTH CENTER SPACE

This year marked a new era of offering diverse and holistic services all in one place. Purpose-built to house the unique range of classrooms, and meeting and recreational space, The Door’s new Bronx Youth Center (BYC) facility unites all of its operations with a welcomed expansion.

The new location, still strategically located in the South Bronx, spans three stories of exposed brick and huge windows, sprawling over 18,000 square feet. Merging the two previous smaller BYC facilities means The Door can increase its capacity to serve the Bronx community with expanded programming and services.

THE DOOR IS NEW YORK CITY'S PREMIER YOUTH DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION, PROVIDING ROBUST AND INNOVATIVE SUPPORT FOR NEW YORKERS AGES 12-24.

“The Door means safety. It means I’m here, and I feel super comfortable. Whether I need help with something serious or want to hang out and have fun, I can do it all at The Door, in one place, in my own time, with people who have my back. It’s always going to be my home no matter what.”
