

Arvydas Vidžiūnas

Associate Principal, London

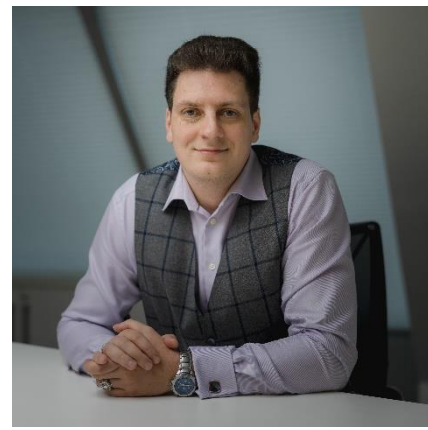

Arvydas Vidžiūnas is an Associate Principal based in RBB's London office. He has over 10 years of experience in working on competition and regulatory matters across a wide range of sectors. He has advised on a wide variety of matters, including mergers, abuse of dominance cases and follow-on damages litigations.

Prior to joining RBB, Arvydas was working at the Irish Competition and Consumer Protection Commission and, prior to that, at the Irish Commission for Communications Regulation.

Since joining RBB, Arvydas has worked extensively on competition matters before the European Commission, as well as national competition authorities in Russia, Lithuania and South Africa. These have involved mergers and acquisitions and abuse of dominance investigations. He also advised clients on follow-on litigation and compliance with EU regulations.

Arvydas has worked on projects across a wide range of sectors including telecommunications and media, ticket distribution, power cables, security services, flooring products, loan servicing, steel, industrial laundry services, truck manufacturing and digital markets.

Arvydas completed an MSc in specialised economic analysis at the Barcelona School of Economics. A Lithuanian national, Arvydas is fluent in Lithuanian, Russian and English.
