

Severin Haugg

Associate Principal, London & Düsseldorf

Severin Haugg is an Associate Principal in RBB's London office, where he has worked since joining RBB in 2015.

Over this period, he has advised on a range of competition issues, with a principle focus on private follow-on damage litigation cases before courts in Germany.

Since joining RBB, Severin has worked extensively on damage assessments in cartel matters in front of courts in Germany.

As well work on cartel matters, Severin also has experience in mergers raising both horizontal and vertical concerns and market investigations before the European Commission, and other national authorities worldwide, which include Sika/MBCC, Covestro/Koninklijke DSM, Discovery/Scripps and Comcast/Sky.

Severin holds a M.Sc. degree in Economics, with a major in competition and regulation, from NOVA School of Business and Economics, Lisbon and a B.Sc. in Economics from the University of Mannheim, with a major in industrial organisation.

As a German national, Severin speaks German and English.
