

Hillary Wee

Associate Principal, London

Hillary is an Associate Principal in RBB's London office. He has extensive experience in providing user-friendly advice on a wide range of competition and regulatory policy matters. These include complex Phase II mergers, follow-on damages litigation, competition law investigations and regulatory risk assessments.

Hillary has worked extensively on cases before the European Commission and before national competition authorities, courts and regulators. These span jurisdictions such as Australia, China, Denmark, the Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, South Africa, South America and the UK.

His experience also covers a wide range of sectors, including chemicals, consumer goods, electricity, motor vehicles, music rights, oil and gas, online entertainment platforms, pharmaceuticals, ports, semiconductors, telecommunications, transportation and water.

In his time at RBB, Hillary has worked with clients such as Bain Capital, EssilorLuxxotica, Samsung, Saudi Aramco, Scania, Tencent and Novartis.

Before joining RBB in 2018, Hillary worked as an economic consultant at Deloitte. Prior to that, he graduated with an MPhil in Economics from the University of Cambridge and a BSc in Economics from University College London.

Hillary's first language is English; he is also fluent in Malay and Mandarin Chinese.

Recent Case Experience

Trucks cartel
Damages litigation, EU

EssilorLuxxotica/ GrandVision
Merger, Global

Bain Capital/ Ahlstrom-Munksjö
Merger, EU

Saudi Aramco/ SABIC
Merger, Global

Tencent
Anti-monopoly law investigation, China

Samsung
Anti-monopoly law investigation, China

Novartis
Competition risk assessment, Central Asia

South African Breweries
Civil litigation, South Africa