

Mark Briske

Senior Associate, Düsseldorf

Mark Briske is a Senior Associate based in the Düsseldorf office of RBB Economics. Since joining RBB in 2020, he has advised clients on a variety of complex competition matters, including merger investigations and follow-on damages litigation.

Mark holds an M.Sc. in Economics from the University of Heidelberg and a B.Sc. in Economics and Mathematics from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Mark has advised clients on a variety of complex merger assessments, including mergers raising both horizontal and vertical concerns, local mergers, in-depth Phase-II merger investigations and appeals of merger decisions. He has also advised clients on the estimation of cartel damages.

He has advised on matters before the European Commission and the UK Competition and Markets Authority, as well as the EU General Court.

Mark's experience includes a wide range of sectors, including biotechnology, chemicals, manufacturing, medical devices, storage services and security services.

Clients Mark has advised include Illumina, Google and Securitas.

Recent Case Experience

Illumina / GRAIL
Merger, EU

Securitas / Stanley Security
Merger, EU and multi-jurisdictional

Global chemical manufacturer
Follow-on damages claim, EU

Illinois Tool Works / MTS
Merger, multi-jurisdictional