

Johannes Mattke

Senior Associate, London

Johannes Mattke is a Senior Associate at RBB Economics, based in the firm's London office. He joined RBB in 2023 with four years of experience working as a competition economist in Berlin. Johannes holds a bachelor's and master's degree in economics from the University of Amsterdam. He is fluent in English and his native language, German.

Johannes has advised clients on a wide variety of competition cases before the European Commission, the Bundeskartellamt, the Competition and Markets Authority, Ofcom, the Federal Trade Commission and various other national competition authorities and courts.

He has assisted clients on complex matters such as merger control procedures, cartel investigations, cartel damage claims, market investigations, arbitrations, consumer protection cases and policy evaluations.

His experience spans a range of sectors, including basic materials, entertainment, fast moving consumer goods, financial services, freight transport, manufacturing, medical devices, pharmaceuticals, specialty chemicals, and technology.

He has published in NZKart, a German professional journal on competition law and economics.

Recent Case Experience

European Commission
Ex-post evaluation of mergers, EU

Danfoss / Eaton Hydraulics
Merger, EU

BMW
Art. 101 proceedings, EU

Air transport industry
Follow-on cartel damages, Germany

European Brands Association (AIM)
Market study on territorial supply constraints, EU