

Johannes Mattke

Senior Associate, London

Johannes Mattke is a Senior Associate at RBB Economics, based in the firm's London office. He has over five years of experience working as a competition economist. Johannes holds a bachelor's and master's degree in economics from the University of Amsterdam. He is fluent in English and his native language, German.

Johannes has advised clients on a wide variety of competition cases before the European Commission, the Bundeskartellamt, the Competition and Markets Authority, Ofcom, the Federal Trade Commission and various other national competition authorities and courts.

He has assisted clients on complex matters such as merger control procedures, cartel investigations, cartel damage claims, market investigations, arbitrations, consumer protection cases and policy evaluations.

His experience spans a range of sectors, including basic materials, energy, entertainment, fast-moving consumer goods, financial services, freight transport, manufacturing, medical devices, pharmaceuticals, specialty chemicals and technology.

He has published in NZKart, a German professional journal on competition law and economics.

Recent Case Experience

Danfoss / Eaton Hydraulics
Merger, Global

LANXESS / Emerald Kalama Chemical
Merger, multi-jurisdictional

Veolia / Friedrich Hofmann GmbH
Merger, Germany

BMW
Article 101 proceedings, EU

KONE
Follow-on cartel damages, Germany

Air transport industry
Follow-on cartel damages, Germany

Cloud services provider
Market study (Ofcom), United Kingdom

Food supplement manufacturer
Consumer protection (FTC), United States

Pharmaceutical manufacturer
International arbitration