

Laxshmi Dharmavasan

Senior Associate, Amsterdam

Laxshmi is a Senior Associate based in RBB's Amsterdam office. She has advised clients on a range of competition matters before the European Commission and various national competitor authorities, most notably those in the Netherlands and the UK.

Prior to joining RBB, Laxshmi obtained an MSc in Economics (with Distinction) from University College London and a BSc in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics from King's College London.

Laxshmi's experience covers a variety of cases, including both horizontal and non-horizontal mergers, and Article 101 TFEU exemptions in the context of horizontal agreements. She also has experience on alleged information exchanges, cartel investigations and follow-on damages.

Laxshmi has a broad range of experience advising clients on matters before the European Commission (EC) and various national competition authorities and courts, including the UK's Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) and the Autoriteit Consument & Markt (ACM) in the Netherlands.

Laxshmi has provided economic advice across a wide range of industries including the tele- and satellite-based communication, shipping, healthcare, veterinary, and automotive sectors.

A Dutch national, Laxshmi is native English and Dutch speaker.
